

Attention Parent/Guardian:

If your child is a recipient of the Clara Waldrop Griffin Humphrey Scholarship he/she will be obligated to attend all five days of the camp. The Scholarship will cover the Young Authors Camp fee, which covers materials and instruction. Young authors are to bring their own sack lunches and swim gear each day. It will be your responsibility to provide transportation to and from camp each day.

By providing your signature below you agree to allow your child to attend the camp under the above requirements.

The Clara Waldrop Griffin Humphrey Scholarship was established to recognize and honor the outstanding teaching accomplishments of Mrs. Humphrey in the Murray Independent School District. Mrs. Humphrey's passion for teaching and dedication to her students earned her the State Teacher of the Year award in 1975.

To create, write and read, combined with the belief in one's self, is the basis for all dreams to be fulfilled by each individual."
